With 25 years of solutions-driven experience in B2B and B2C client relationships, business development, project management, marketing, and sales, Debbie Stracher-Weis arrived at Kaplan University with a proven reputation of trust, integrity, and a passion for details. After joining Kaplan University as a graduate admissions advisor, she transitioned to her current position as a National Account Manager in 2014. Today, Debbie works directly with corporations and students to develop relationships and solutions that meet a variety of initiatives and educational goals. She holds a bachelor's degree in business and computer science from the University of Florida, a master's degree from Nova Southeastern University, and a graduate certificate in project management from Kaplan University.

Prior to joining Kaplan University, Debbie enjoyed a long career at IBM, where she partnered with clients, peers, and worldwide teams in a number of lead positions.
